Further action

If you feel that the governing body has acted unreasonably in the handling of the complaint you can complain to the Department for Education after the procedure has been completed.

Ofsted will also consider complaints about schools. You can contact Ofsted if you feel that a school is not run properly and needs inspecting. Ofsted will not look into problems with individual students. This course of action is only available if the school complaints procedure has already been followed.

Unreasonable complaints

For the definition of unreasonable complaints please see the school's complaints policy. If a complainant's behavior causes an unreasonable level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts using a communication plan.

Introduction

Bell Farm Primary School endeavours to provide the best education possible for all of our pupils in an open and transparent environment. We welcome any feedback that we receive from parents, pupils and third parties, and we accept that not all of this will be positive. Where concerns are raised the school intends for these to be dealt with:

- Fairly
- Openly
- Promptly
- Without prejudice

In the first instance, concerns should be raised informally with the relevant member of staff, who will make time to talk to you and seek a solution. If you are not satisfied with this response, then the procedure outlined on pages 2 and 3 should be followed.

However, if your complaint relates to:

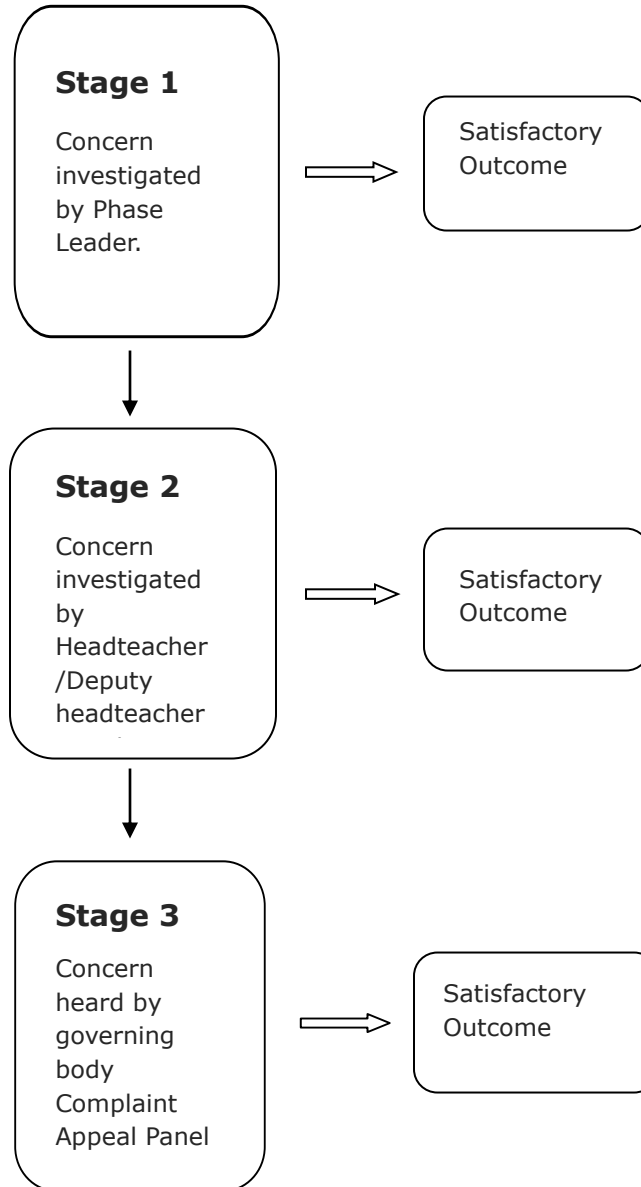

- Child Protection/Safeguarding
- Admission to School
- Pupil Exclusion
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND)

Please ring the Surrey County Council Contact Centre on 03456 009 009 and they will put you in touch with the appropriate team who will advise you further.

You can obtain a copy of the school's full complaints policy from the school office or website www.bell-farm.co.uk.
